SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this subject is that the students are able to transfer the theoretical content on matters of justice and social commitment to their personal and professional lives: this will be possible thanks to reflection on less fortunate groups (the poor, the sick, the mistreated, immigrants and those suffering from addiction...) and by means of the synthesis of their social work experiences.

SKILLS

Basic Skills

Students must have demonstrated knowledge and understanding in an area of study that is founded on general secondary education. Moreover, the area of study is typically at a level that includes certain aspects implying knowledge at the forefront of its field of study, albeit supported by advanced textbooks

Students must be able to apply their knowledge to their work or vocation in a professional manner and possess skills that can typically be demonstrated by coming up with and sustaining arguments and solving problems within their field of study

Students must have the ability to gather and interpret relevant data (usually within their field of study) in order to make judgments that include reflections on pertinent social, scientific or ethical issues

Students must be able to convey information, ideas, problems and solutions to both an expert and non-expert audience

Students must have developed the learning skills needed to undertake further study with a high degree of independence

General Skills

To be able to work efficiently as a member and as the head of a team in multicultural and/or multidisciplinary environments.

To develop professional skills such as humility in the workplace, consistency in practice, tidiness and discipline, objective self-criticism and the spirit of achievement.

To recognise the importance of the social and environment elements of one's professional and business activity and of the need for a professional code of ethics.

To consider the activities related to the profession from an international viewpoint and develop attitudes of interest, respect and dialogue with other nationalities, cultures and religions in search of the truth.

Specific skills

To identify with the mission of the University, of the company and of personal projects

To understand the workings of the company as an organisation that creates, makes efforts and creates value for its stakeholders, always being aware of the importance of the social and environmental dimensions of its activity.
