SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Additional Training Activities offers students the chance to gain academic recognition in the form of credits for participation in cultural university, sporting, student representation, voluntary and cooperation-based activities (RD 861/2010).

This elective course compiles the extracurricular training of UFV students so as to enhance their university experience with skills and professional knowledge that complement their degree and with interdisciplinary activities that contribute to their all-round development. The objective is to credit the educational value of the `non-formal activities of university life¿ in their various forms, taking advantage of the opportunities offered by the European Higher Education Area.
