SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

To equip learners with the knowledge and skills which will enable them to use the English language in their future work environment as true professionals in the field of journalism, research or documentation, educating and training students to be able to communicate in different multimedia platforms.

SKILLS

Basic Skills

Students must have demonstrated knowledge and understanding in an area of study that is founded on general secondary education. Moreover, the area of study is typically at a level that includes certain aspects implying knowledge at the forefront of its field of study, albeit supported by advanced textbooks.

Students must have the ability to gather and interpret relevant data (usually within their field of study) in order to make judgments that include reflections on pertinent social, scientific or ethical issues.

General Skills

To learn how to acquire knowledge: to understand the dynamics of personal development through skills in communication, research, critical and creative thought, consideration and execution of action plans, and teamwork.

Specific skills

- Acquire the ability to express oneself fluently and efficiently in English in order to transmit messages and information in that language.
- Employ the English language accurately in order to gain access to news and information in the press and audiovisual media.
- Use the English language as highly practical transnational instrument of communication, opening doors to other cultures and original journalistic sources.
