SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

The main objective of this course is to equip students with the necessary skills for planning and providing care for students with specific educational needs. The course therefore offers content which enables students to identify, understand and assess the needs of these students and to avail of the resources necessary for the required educational intervention in each event. This is undertaken in collaboration with other professionals and the families involved with a view to providing the help, strategies and adaptations necessary for children's full development.

SKILLS

Basic Skills

Students must have demonstrated knowledge and understanding in an area of study that is founded on general secondary education. Moreover, the area of study is typically at a level that includes certain aspects implying knowledge at the forefront of its field of study, albeit supported by advanced textbooks

Students must be able to apply their knowledge to their work or vocation in a professional manner and possess skills that can typically be demonstrated by coming up with and sustaining arguments and solving problems within their field of study

Students must have the ability to gather and interpret relevant data (usually within their field of study) in order to make judgments that include reflections on pertinent social, scientific or ethical issues

Students must be able to convey information, ideas, problems and solutions to both an expert and non-expert audience

Students must have developed the learning skills needed to undertake further study with a high degree of independence

General Skills

To design, plan and evaluate teaching and learning processes, both individually and in cooperation with other teachers and school professionals.

To design and regulate learning areas in contexts of diversity, fostering gender equality, egalitarianism and respect for human rights formed by the values of citizen education.

Specific skills

To be familiar with the characteristics of students with special educational needs.

To identify where the main difficulties of students with special educational needs lie.

To be aware of the best practice guidelines in a classroom that contains pupils with special educational needs.
